Dedication

The sixth form of 1961 extends its heartfelt thanks to Mr. David C. Francis who, as our form advisor for our four years at Pomfret, has shown an unflagging interest in the form as a whole and as fifty-five individuals. As our advisor, Mr. Francis has always supported the form in all it did from organizing form picnics to taking care of the more serious problems that always confront a form as it goes through Pomfret. His wisdom, integrity, and tact have been guides to us all and we will always remember Mr. Francis in the years ahead of us. We, the sixth form, take this opportunity to show a small part of our thanks and appreciation by dedicating our yearbook to Mr. & Mrs. David C. Francis.

With Our Thanks

Mr. Twichell's achievement here at Pomfret has been an undeniably outstanding one. He has raised the standards and quality of both students and faculty to a level far superior to that of ten years ago when he first took over as Headmaster. Under his direction and guidance, Pomfret has become one of the top-ranking prep schools in the country. During these ten years of constant improvement, Mr. Twichell has served as a continuous source of inspiration and encouragement to all who have come into contact with him. And not only has Mr. Twichell been admired and respected as an excellent administrator and educator, but he has been universally and sincerely liked as well.

It is with great regret that the graduating class of 1961 bids Mr. Twichell farewell. We extend our sincere thanks to him for the particular attention and help he has given to our form during the course of our four years at Pomfret and wish him and his family the best of luck in the future.

Valedictory Address

There's no doubt about it: we've all been working hard since September 17, and last Wednesday we couldn't do any more. So we shrugged and quit. As a matter of fact, Mr. Benoit, the school barber, told me that even in Putnam he could clearly hear a "whew" 200 voices strong last Wednesday at 10:50 as the math final came to a close.

We've taken it irresponsible and easy these last two days. We've vegetated from the dorm to the dining room to the tennis courts to the golf course to the hockey pond to the crew lake, and back again. In short, most of us have spent the last two days the way the "happiness" boys spent the last four years.

And this is the way to end a year—in a happiness mood. But right now it's time to stop vegetating and instead look hard at the aspects of Pomfret we'll always remember.

As a surface memory, for example, I won't soon forget the cheer I heard voiced while taking my mark and getting set on the starting line for the half mile in the Achaean-Ionian intra-school track meet last Saturday. Through the traditional yells of "come on A's" and "let's go I's" came Mr. Twichell's personality expressed in three words: "come on, gang!" How to put genuine cheer in your cheer, lesson number 1.

Comments like this will be remembered at any Pomfret bull session. That's the Pomfret we—the 55 blue-blazered individualists in the first rows on my right—will recall at the form party tonight.

Yet what about a year from tonight? With 365 days of perspective, what will each of us remember as the thing that made Pomfret a somewhat confusing and often perplexing and frustrating, but ultimately terrifically worthwhile way to spend four years?

I'm absolutely confident that my answer a year from now will be every bit as confused as it will be this morning. Yet at bottom it's bound to come to the same thing: Pomfret's not a school . . . it's an attitude—a way of thinking and living. A great big and wonderful, yet completely undefinable attitude which I will now define for you.

The attitude is complex, composed of layers. But firmly rooted at its base is Pomfret's aura of excellence. This school has become, under Mr. Twichell and a highly competent, dedicated faculty, a place which continually says "I won't accept second best—I won't accept brand X—in anything."

Especially in academics. Excellence in that because education is a process of becoming—a constant process—and it's hard to become without a good college education. The class of '61 is packing off to good colleges next year. 40 percent will be at Harvard and Yale. Others will be at other excellent campuses. But what's important is not the college, but the reason we're going: the intellectual curiosity, nurtured in the last four years, driving most of us to seek more than just Ivy league status.

And excellence in the right frame of mind about athletics. Excellence in drama—remember P. K. Allen and Owen Williams in Guys and Dolls? Excellence in music—Mozart's Litany in B flat performed in the Bushnell in Hartford. And in art, and in school publications, and so on, et cetera, et cetera, all the way down the line. Anything that's worth doing at all is worth doing right. This is the foundation of the Pomfret frame of mind.

Yet excellence alone is not what makes the Pomfret attitude so distinctive, so outstanding. What makes Pomfret transcend the limits of an excellence factory is something else, something that Mr. Twichell has been busy packing into the students here for a decade—something alive that charges the whole place—something that's not always around, but which makes education become Education when it is—something that makes the Pomfret student interested and interesting —something I call "spunk."

Spunk is the interested and excited attitude. The attitude in the Pomfret student that comes from seeing what a little "being" amounts to—what the results of education and ideas are—right within the process of becoming and preparing for college. An attitude of aliveness and awareness and interest that comes perfectly natural from seeing lessons and classroom recitation appear personally, life size.

Spunk from colloquiums. From speakers. From seminars.

The scientific process learned through tough experiments with the new telescope—second largest in the state—like the one being started right now to determine whether or not short period variable stars exist. Here's something no scientist, no astronomer, and certainly no high school student, has ever looked for.

The international affairs seminar, bringing those startling yet lifeless figures about illiteracy, over-population, hunger, and starvation in other lands, crashing like intensely personalized lightning into the minds and souls of two Pomfret boys each year directly, and hopefully to 198 others vicariously—until suddenly something about the stark contrast between the life of the Indian coolie or the segregated mine worker in the Union of South Africa—people you've known personally, as friends—churns you up so much inside that you've got to help—to help humanity.

That's spunk: interest; awareness; concern. Not just learning about it, but seeing it, doing it, living it. That's what Pomfret is . . . when it's really Pomfret.

It's hard to have spunk in the college board world of the 1960's when numerical grades seem to count so much—when it's so easy to set college as the only goal and put good grades above good, real interest and good, real understanding of what those things we study mean—in life terms, six feet high.

Yet Mr. Twichell, by his high idealism and his "go" and his willingness to constantly change and improve—his spunk—has made and maintained the Pomfret we're graduating from today—not Pomfret the school . . . Pomfret the attitude.

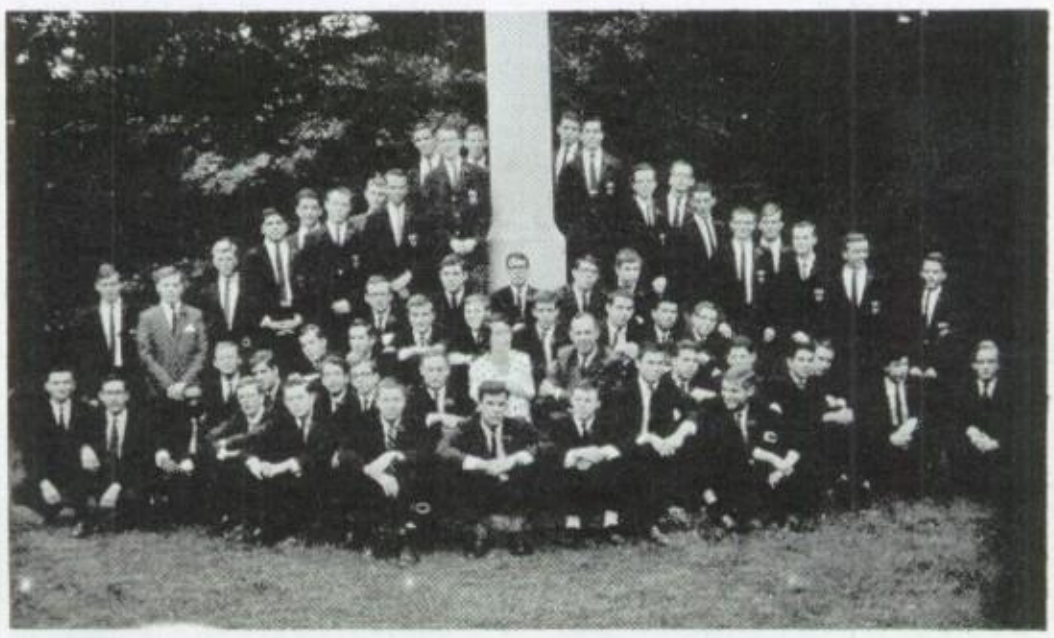
As a school—or I should say as an "attitude"—we don't know how to thank Mr. Twichell for the spunk he's helped us develop. We feel embarrassed about trying to repay him for ten years of wonderful leadership—something no one can measure objectively and tangibly—with a tangible, material gift. But we've done it anyway, so he'll simply have to pardon us.

Mr. Twichell, this is a Leica M2 engraved with the large letters D.C.T. and today's date. There may be a better camera in existence and there may be a better man—a man who deserves it more than you do. But we haven't found either one yet.

Incidentally, when you develop the roll of color film that's in here now, you'll see that the first two pictures are of you and your wife seated by the sundial with the senior class.

As you come up to accept this now, please take more than the material object itself. Take with you the best wishes and the remembrance and the gratitude of two hundred Pomfret boys—plus the hundreds who graduated in the six years before any of us came.

PETE HOBBS



Mr. Twichell's Final Remarks

JUNE 9, 1961

I wish like Frank Mwine that I had a tangible gift of thanks to leave at Pomfret School because thanks and appreciation and gratitude for the opportunities offered me here are the essence of what I wish to say at this time. Maybe in trying to express this you will bear with me if for a moment I turn back the pages of time.

Ten years ago on Pomfret's 57th Prize Day, June 7, 1952, I described our first year together as follows:

> I stand here filled with mixed emotions. Last fall I had a feeling we would never make it.
> It has been an incredibly short year—busy, happy, amazingly good.
> A year of adjustment—a year of finding out how far 'Twee' can be pushed.
> A year of first things first.
> A year taken at high speed.
> A year of learning that life is no fun without change and improvement and battle.
> A year in which we have found that freedom in which we as a school and country believe: is a privilege, is hard work, is precious beyond words, and cannot be taken for granted or it is lost.
> A year in which we have discovered that freedom implies divergence and nonconformity of thought and action, and furthermore, that it requires a binding cement, not of common ideas or agreements but of moral and ethical principle and a shared respect for the dignity of each human being.
> A year in which we have discovered that strength, leadership and harmony are possible within a framework of such non-conformity if we have the faith and the genuine belief to support it.
> And finally, a year in which we have discovered that despite the hard work, the divergence and disagreement, it is well worth the battle because this is life, this is the only way to realize the total strength of a community and the fullness of man.

Today, ten years later, I can add little more. Certainly the descriptive words, busy, happy, amazingly good, high speed, freedom, privilege, strength, harmony, battle, non-conformity and faith describe the whole ten year period just as well as they did the first. And perhaps in their applicability to today as well as to yesterday, they lend themselves to one final thought I might add.

I am increasingly conscious of the flow, the pattern, or motion of certain things. A boy, for instance—short pants, long pants—athletics, girls, ideas—follower, leader—naive, sophisticated, mature. A school also, what a continually changing stream of people, all growing, all changing, all going somewhere. Or a friend, or brother, or wife, how absolutely necessary that there be a continual flow of new understanding to continually nourish the relationship.

Maybe then it would be appropriate to add that the freedom we so instinctively treasure and struggle to maintain, even in the face of ever increasing pressures to conform, is really just a medium or environment essential to this flow or process that is so vitally a part of our existence.

And yet, there are those things that never flow or change—only our understanding of them changes.

Maybe then the essence, and this is my point, of an education is the discovery and sorting into two groups of: those things that change and must be allowed to change to be real and true, and those things that year after year, generation after generation, remain unchanged and always will.

We confuse these so often. Trying to hold fixed those things that must flow and change and have motion, just to be real, just to be themselves, just to express through their very motion the truth they contain, while in the next breath failing to respect as immovable, by attempting to alter them, those things which can only express their essence, their truth, through their absolute fixedness.

I sincerely hope that this climate of search and discovery, of the freedom to try, of sensitivity to those things that must change and those that cannot, of opportunity for each individual to grow in terms of his own capacities, and of respect for the dignity of each person no matter what his interests or talents, can continue to flourish here at Pomfret. It dates well back before my days and I have every confidence will continue long after.

May I thank in closing all those members of our team—faculty, staff, students, parents, trustees, alumni—who have helped during these past ten years keep "this Pomfret tradition" alive and prospering.

In particular may I single out the faculty for a special word. As a group, their dedication, loyalty, and devotion to Pomfret School has been the key to its success. I am grateful for their competence in the classroom and their ambition to continually improve themselves as teachers. These qualities I appreciate and respect—maybe I should say expect. But what I really thank them for are those many little beyond the call of duty acts of devotion. These are the things that make a school a "good" school not just a school. To the Bartletts, Jolines, Flugstads and Messrs. Griffiths and Falconer who are leaving us, we offer best wishes and deep thanks.

George and Maggie Bartlett—South Kent is a lucky school. We will miss you, your pipe, your quiet sense of humor, your splendid dedication and loyalty to your job, your high standards.

John and Jean Joline—tremendous success to you as you take on your new and stimulating challenge as Darrow's new first couple. We have admired your drive, your honesty and your keen sense of fair play. We will be cheering for you with confidence in the years ahead.

Tom and Cindy Flugstad—you have battled and I think won a tremendous victory. All cheers for further success and great thanks and appreciation for your efforts here. They have not gone unnoticed or unappreciated.

Roger Griffiths and Ian Falconer—both here for only one year, you brought a zest for life and a regard for competence that has enrichened our school and lightened our lives. Our thoughts will be with you and our thanks and our pleasant remembrances.

We also will be losing the Ranhoffs for a year as they journey to Norway on a well earned Sabbatical, but we will be welcoming back the Richardsons from a similar experience this past winter in Greece—an even balancing of sorrow and pleasure.

And now, gentlemen of the Sixth Form, God speed to you!

To your President, Mark Forester, my personal thanks for a well run year. Mark, your tact, your understanding, your ability to handle people, your wisdom would do credit to a man several years your senior. And to the rest of you, I can only second "Manny's" comments of yesterday. Your singing in Chapel, your play last night, your unity as a class, your respect for hard work, your regard for your school—these are all tributes to you. You are one of only three classes in the past ten years to all receive diplomas, but more important, your attitude, your understanding, your willingness to dare the new, and to try, impresses me. We have enjoyed working with you, we will miss you, we will feel confident that you will go on both in college and afterwards always striving to do your best.

Good luck and God be with you!

The varsity football team made a big comeback from last year's 0-6 record and finished with a silver season. Under the leadership of Captain Chip Wadhams and Coach Joline the team finished with a 4-1-1 record. Also, because most of the players wanted to redeem their pride and team after last year's defeats, the football team had one of the most spirited teams it had in a long time. It also had a strong first string composed of ten returning lettermen. Quarterback John Case showed a remarkable improvement from last year, and he also had a fine head on his shoulders and an accurate pass. Other standouts this year were: Tony Moulton, Dick Bathrick, Tim Fairchild, Rob Fates, Terry Dick, and Dick Fates. The tensest game of the season was against St. George's. With ten seconds to go in the last period Dick Fates swept around the left end and scored. The try for the extra point failed and the game ended in a 6-6 tie.

The soccer season opened at Pomfret, with great expectation for a very successful year. The team, led by captain John Griefen, displayed high spirits and ability throughout the eleven game schedule. After beating Avon Old Farms and Watkinson the team met its first defeat against Kingswood. With renewed vigor the Red and Black defeated E. O. Smith, St. George's, and Woodstock. These games were hard fought contests and clearly showed Pomfret's fight.

The second half of the season opened with the Griffins being soundlv beaten by Wilbraham. It was a stunning blow to the team, which had sights on a silver season. After soundly defeating Monson Academy, Pomfret lost to the toughest team on the schedule, Suffield. This was a very close game with much spirit displayed. The last two games of the season were triumphs over Worcester and Westminister.

The final record for the season (8-3) showed that the team was a very capable and spirited group. Mr. Ranhoff, the coach, was very pleased with the team's showing and this being his first season with the varsity, he, himself, did a very admirable coaching job.

The 1960-1961 hockey season was one of success for the Griffins. Under the competent coaching of Mr. Bartlett and the spirited leadership of captain Tim Carey, the team produced a rewarding 7-1-0 season. One of the factors that contributed to this success was the spirit and support not only of the team itself, but of the entire student body who lent a helping hand in clearing the deep snow that had collected on the hockey pond.

A game with Moses Brown opened the season and gave Pomfret its first victory of the season, with a score of 2-0. A very tough Cranston team gave the stickmen a battle but again Pomfret came out on top, 2-1. Wilbraham proved to be no match for Pomfret and succumbed, 6-0. In perhaps the best game of the year Pomfret was outclassed although not outfought by a very good St. Mark's team. The score clearly indicates the nature of the contest, 1-2. However, Pomfret came back and won its next four games beating East Providence 4-3, Westminster 3-2, Loomis 7-3, and Worcester 5-0.

Unfortunately, the amount of snow that fell after the last contest and the development of an underground spring cancelled the last four games.

The Pomfret School basketball team broke even in the 1960-61 season, winning seven games and losing seven. The team started off strong with two victories over Woodstock and Tourtellotte, but then slacked off, losing the next three games to Westminster, Providence Country Day, and Portsmouth Priory. On January 25, however, the team refound its early spark, and led by Ralph Arietta, who scored 26 points, defeated a highly touted Putnam team.

On January 28 the basketball team travelled to Milton, where it succumbed to a strong Milton team in a defensive battle which ended in a 42-45 score.

On February 1, the team played on the home court, defeating Mary E. Wells High. The game was a 63-43 victory in which nearly all the members of the team managed to score.

Of the next four games, Pomfret won only one, defeating Webster and losing to Suffield, Bartlett High, and Moses Brown. On February 22, however, the team showed its early season form by overcoming Marianapolis in a 57-54 struggle. The game was very close, and it was not until the last seconds that a Pomfret victory was assured.

Pomfret ended the season well by beating St. Mark's 53-36 and just barely losing a well-played game to St. George's. The offense looked especially strong against St. Mark's and Ralph Arietta was high man of the day with 24 points. The St. George's game was one of the closest of the season, St. George's managing to win only in the last seconds of play.

The varsity wrestling team had its first losing season, ending up with a 4-5 record. However, four of these five losses were very close and could have gone either way. It was usually the last two matches that decided the victory. Suffield was the only wrestling team that managed to beat the Red and Black by a large margin. Driven on by the leadership and determination of Captain Apollonio and Coaches McClure and Campbell, the Pomfret wrestlers were able to slip by Kingswood 24-21 winning the victory in the last match. This was the first time in five years that Pomfret beat this strong wrestling team that was the Connecticut Wrestling Champions a few years ago. The wrestling team lacked strength from the lower classes; however, with a year of experience and its wonderful spirit, it ought to have a good season next year.

This year the Pomfret crew had a good record, and the head coaching position vacated by Mr. Garfield was ably filled by Mr. Cole. He had the crew in excellent condition for the first race, which was with Salisbury on dance weekend. All four boats were victorious, and the first and third boats looked especially strong, winning by 2½ and 4 lengths respectively.

On May 13 the Pomfret crew participated in a triangular race with Brown and Nichols and Saint Mark's at Saint Mark's. There was a head wind, and the first two boats won their races while the third and fourth boats both came in second. The third boat showed a strong finish nearly overtaking Brown and Nichols, but the fourth boat rowed at too high a stroke, barely managing to finish second.

On May 19, the crew made the long trip to South Kent, where all four boats lost to an extremely strong South Kent crew. With the exception of the third boat race, which was lost by a deck, all the races were one-sided, and the South Kent first boat broke the course record by rowing a 2:37.5 over the half mile distance.

To end the season Pomfret participated in the Worcester Regatta, and the squad managed to take a fourth overall. All the boats made the finals except the second boat which went on to win the consolation race. In the third boat final Pomfret came in a very close third, losing to Brown and Nichols by 2 feet and Exeter by 4 feet. In the first boat race Pomfret came in fourth, South Kent winning for the first time in the race's history.

The Pomfret school baseball team opened its 1961 season with a 10-3 victory over Stafford Springs. This victory gave the team a tremendous amount of spirit and revealed the potentiality of the players. However, this outlook was quickly dimmed after the team lost successively to Burrillville 2-7 and Moses Brown 0-3. In view of these losses it seemed evident that there was a lack in the hitting department and too many errors which proved to be costly. Before the team could come into its own there were two more losses to Tourtellotte 1-5 and Bartlett 1-3. However, when the team found itself under the spirited leadership of Captain George Walker, it came back and beat Portsmouth Priory 12-5. Against a strong St. George's squad the team lost a hard fought game, 5-9.

The second half of the season opened with what was the hardest fought contest of the schedule. The Griffins came back from a 5-1 deficit and in the last inning unloaded seven runs to beat St. Mark's 8-6. The last part of the season saw Pomfret beating Putnam 3-1 and Providence Country Day 1-0 while losing to Mary E. Wells 3-4. The season proved to be a hard one although the team displayed a winning season.

The 1960-61 Pomfret tennis team, under the coaching of Mr. Joline and Mr. Milnor, had an excellent season, winning 5 of its 7 matches. In the first match with Suffield, Pomfret looked especially strong in the singles. The team won five of its six singles, number one and two men, Dave Hodges and Dick Fates, easily defeating their opponents.

In the next match the team coasted by Portsmouth Priory 7-2, but in the Kingswood match it came up against stiffer competition. It lost 4-5 in a close battle that was not decided until the last match.

On May 13 the Pomfret tennis team played perhaps its finest match of the season, handing St. George's its first defeat in three years. The singles matches were split 3-3, and it was only through victories of the doubles teams, Hodges & Rogers and Fates & Migel, that victory was assured.

In its next two matches, the tennis team defeated both Worcester Academy and Wilbraham by a score of 5½-3½. In both of the matches the singles were close, and victory in both cases depended on the doubles.

On May 30, Pomfret lost its second match of the season to a very good St. Mark's team. Hodges and Fates were the only players able to win their singles matches, and the St. Mark's team also proved strong in doubles, managing to take two of the three matches.

After a very successful season last year the Pomfret track team opened its 1961 season in hopes of repeating its previous successes. Under the guiding hands of coaches Parquette and Ranhoff, the squad found that it had the necessary strength in the running events and enough of the weight division covered to make up a balanced and competent team.

The first meet of the season marked a repeated defeat of Griswold High as the Griffins won 67-33. Against Plainfield the Red and Black outclassed their opponent and swept the meet 78½-20½. On Dance Weekend, Pomfret had a meet with Portsmouth Priory, and although the meet started on an equal basis, it was soon evident that Pomfret was outmatched. The final score was 35-54. The next meet was with the annually potent Putnam High, but Pomfret through outstanding performance and determined effort, pulled out the close match which ended 54-50. On a wet and muggy Saturday after the Putnam meet, the Griffins traveled to the lair of the Dragons to meet St. George's. This was a truly dismal day as Pomfret lost its second meet, 20-53. However, against E. O. Smith, Pomfret ended its active season with a 62-37 victory and a very successful season.

Unfortunately, due to bad weather, the two remaining meets with Suffield and Webster had to be cancelled. This fact, however, did not spoil the squad which felt it had done itself justice. Through the spirited determination and the constant leadership of Captain Rob Fates, the team ended up with a 4-2-0 season.

To Kill a Lion

Comments made by Frank Mwine, Prize Day, June 9, 1961

"First, I wish to take this opportunity to say my deepest thanks and appreciation to all the student body and faculty for the wonderful time you have given me this year. I wish to particularly thank the Sixth Form and, even more, the teachers in the courses I have taken for their special help.

"Finally, before I go, I wish to leave something here. What I am holding now is an African spear. We used to kill lions with these, but now we have gotten rid of them and pushed them into the National Parks.

"However, there is a more serious, new type of lion. The world enemy lion – misunderstanding between the peoples of the world. During my year's stay here I have found that you like what I like and hate what I hate. I very much appreciate your interest in me and my country and even more your willingness to let me understand you.

"I therefore wish to present this spear to the school that you may ever continue to fight this lion of misunderstanding and create a future friendlier world."
